

Smart Meetings Announces Winners of 2021 Planner of the Year Awards

California, Sausalito, Aug 3, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Smart Meetings, the essential resource for the event evolution, is proud to announce the winners of the 2021 Planner of the Year awards. The annual list singles out the transformational meeting professionals who stepped up during a challenging year to innovate, inspire and get business done.

These 24 pros were nominated by their peers and chosen based on their responses to questions about their approach to designing events, their evolution over the last 18 months, and their vision for the future.

“These models of resiliency inspire me and make me think that we will come back stronger,” said Marin Bright, Smart Meetings founder, and CEO.

The 2021 Planner of the Year winners is featured in the August supplement of Smart Meetings magazine.
