

Up to 50% off Limited-Time Special Discount for Leawo PhotoIns to Edit Photos with AI

Guangdong, Shenzhen, Aug 24, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Alongside the end of August, the annual music festival season is drawing to a close. Although the COVID-19 pandemic has affected almost everything people like to enjoy in groups, from dining in restaurants to watching movies in theaters, with the introduction of vaccines, the lockdown restrictions begin to loosen. For music fans who always brave the heat in exchange for music festivals, enjoying a live performance makes them feel like in summer. During the music festival, people may take tons of photos to commemorate this unforgettable moment, but not all of the photos are satisfied because of the crowd. To help people enhance photo quality after music festivals, Leawo Software, a leading developer and supplier specialized in multimedia solutions and data management software, recently announced its Free Giveaway & Specials for 2021 Music Festivals, including up to 50% off discount on Leawo PhotoIns.

the last week of August. That is, until August 31st, people can purchase PhotoInns with a 50% off discount coupon by default on its official purchase page.
