Get to know Urogynecologist Dr. Uzma Chaudhry, who serves patients in Pennsylvania.

New York, New York City, Aug 10, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG), Dr. Chaudhry is a fellowship-trained Urogynecologist at Urogynecology and Female Medicine. She attained board certification in obstetrics and gynecology through the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology (ABOG). The ABOG is a non-profit organization that provides board certification for practicing obstetricians and gynecologists in the United States and Canada

Dr. Chaudhry completed her residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology at Cooper University of Rowan Medical School where she served as Chief Resident. Following residence, she continued her education at Cooper Hospital where she completed a three-year fellowship in Female Pelvic Medicine and Reconstructive Surgery. During her fellowship, Dr. Chaudhry was active in research, receiving grants and presenting at national conferences.

Urogynecology is a specialized field of Gynecology and Obstetrics that deals with female pelvic medicine and reconstructive surgery. Urogynecologists are doctors who diagnose and treat pelvic floor conditions such as sexual dysfunction, weak bladder, urinary incontinence, pelvic pain, and pelvic organ prolapse (when the organs drop because the muscles are weak).

With offices in Bensalem, Pennsylvania & Hamilton, New Jersey, she and her staff at Urogynecology and Female Medicine are committed to helping patients recapture their self-confidence and return to an active, independent lifestyle that far too many women have previously feared gone forever.

Committed to treating women with compassion and sensitivity, Dr. Chaudhry has the expertise, diagnostic equipment, and therapeutic options to help with urinary incontinence, pelvic organ prolapse, and voiding disorders that affect millions of women every year. In most cases, she can help to either cure the problem or significantly reduce the symptoms.

Dealing with urogynecological problems can sometimes be embarrassing and difficult to talk about. Understanding this fact is a key part of the mission statement of Urogynecology and Female Medicine. Dr. Chaudhry offers the highest level of care and will do her best to find the surgical or non-surgical solution that best suits the individual.
