Get to know Family Nurse Practitioner, Wanda Howe, who serves patients in Marlton, New Jersey.

New York, New York City, Aug 18, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Wanda is a family nurse practitioner at Compassionate Health Care, Inc. in Marlton, New Jersey. Her areas of specialization include adult and gerontology medicine, mental health, geriatrics, and IV therapy.

“Our mission at Compassionate Health Care is to help our clients lead dignified, independent lifestyles in the comfort and safety of their own home. We are aiming to improve the lives of the homebound, help ease the aging process, with respect and dignity. We are here to enhance the lives of all people” as stated on the practice’s website.

To begin her career, Wanda attended Holy Family College (Holy Family University) and obtained a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Later, she attended Rutgers University and obtained her Master of Science in Nursing degree in 2012.

To remain up to date within her field, she maintains a professional membership with the American Nurses Association, the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, and Wound Ostomy and Continence.

On a more personal note, Wanda attributes her success to her faith in God. Her mother died during childbirth, so she was raised by her grandma, who taught her compassion, love, and understanding.

A Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) provides continuing and comprehensive healthcare for the individual and family across all ages, genders, diseases, and body systems. FNPs maintain patient records, perform physical exams, order or perform diagnostic tests, prescribe medications, develop treatment plans, as well as treat acute and chronic illnesses, conditions, and injuries that fall under primary care.
