

Afropop Sensation Clem Biney Has Been Growing His Fanbase Across The World

California, Los Angeles, Sep 10, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Clem Biney is an on-the-rise Ghanaian American recording artist from Brooklyn, New York. Although from Brooklyn he currently resides in New Jersey. Music has always piqued his interest since he was younger. Growing up he enjoyed musical pioneers such as Ice Cube, Snoop Dogg, Nas, Scarface, Biggie, and 2Pac. Clem began writing while in High School. His poems were so well done that they ended up being featured in the Home News Tribune Newspaper in New Jersey. Being very good at poetry only helped to assist Clem within the music world. His poetry became rhymes that turned into full songs. Clem recorded his first actual demo at the age of 17 and since then has not let up. In 2016 while in Ghana, he really received his musical inspiration while watching some other music creatives make beats. After hearing those beatmakers create, Clem discovered his style of music which was afrobeat. Finding his sound helped take him to the next level.

Clem is gaining more attention each day with his content, He has already gained much success from his craft. Clem has won the Ghana Music Awards in 2020 and in 2021. He has also won the best U.S based Afropop song of the year titled "Maa Adwoa". These are huge accomplishments for his brand. His music is spreading across the nation! Clem is a vibrant individual who carries a message of hope, passion, and love with his music. He is hard at work making sure he stays focused and keeps pushing through any failures as these are only road bumps.

Currently, Clem is working on a few new singles and his first E.P. He also has a music video underway and is working on his merch to drop early next year. Hard work and networking have helped him grow his brand tremendously. He also takes advantage of all opportunities that might help his career on the way.
