Get to know Family Physician and Geriatrician Dr. Anthony G. Arslan, who serves patients in North Las Vegas, Nevada.

New York, New York City, Sep 24, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - A highly trained physician in the field of family medicine and geriatrics, Dr. Arslan specializes in dementia, frailty, home visits, and nursing home care. He is in practice with Southwest Medical MLK Healthcare Center, which is a part of Southwest Medical Associates.

Caring for southern Nevadans since 1972, Southwest Medical Associates is one of Nevada's largest multi-specialty medical groups. With decades of experience and a drive to better their patients' lives, they combine technology and information to deliver care when and where their patients need it.

Graduating with his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2008, Dr. Arslan completed his internship at Nassau University Medical Center, and his residency in family medicine at St. John's Episcopal Hospital, where he was Chief Resident. Finally, he completed two fellowships at Long Beach Medical Center and South Nassau Community Hospital.

Subsequent to his education, he attained board certification in family medicine, geriatric medicine, and osteopathic manipulative medicine through the American Osteopathic Board of Family Physicians (AOBFP). The AOBFP is an organization that provides board certification to qualified osteopathic physicians who specialize in delivering comprehensive primary care for patients of all ages, genders, and addressing all parts of the body.

On a professional level, Dr. Arslan is an active member of the American Osteopathic Association, the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians, the New York State Osteopathic Medical Society, the American Academy of Family Physicians, the American Geriatrics Society, the Medical Society of the State of New York, and the Connecticut Osteopathic Medical Society.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Geriatrics, or geriatric medicine, is a specialty that focuses on the health care of elderly people. It aims to promote health by preventing and treating diseases and disabilities in older adults. A geriatrician is a health care provider who focuses on patient well-being and independent functioning. These allopathic or osteopathic health care providers are specifically trained to evaluate and manage the unique health care needs and special treatment requirements of older people.

Among his most notable achievements, Dr. Arslan has been the recipient of the Platinum Quality Service Award by Bridgeport Hospital in 2016.
