Delhi, New Delhi, Sep 22, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The platform of Asort, the country's first co-commerce company, attracts industrialists, entrepreneurs, etc. coming from different regions of the country, who are here to increase their sales, better communicate with the community members and customers, and explore new options for their growth. Helps a lot. And now the Asort platform of Dynamic Beneficial Accord Marketing Pvt Ltd has gone a step further and launched the Asort Company App. Through this, the business community associated with them will now be more comfortable and they will grow faster: Roshan Singh Bisht Co-Founder of Dynamic Beneficial Accord Marketing Pvt Ltd.

Roshan Singh Bisht – CEO & Founder of Dynamic Beneficial Accord Marketing Pvt Ltd said, “Keeping in mind the convenience and ease of the customers and business owners, this app has been launched. The Asort App will help in connecting more business owners and customers.”

The Asort app is available on both iOS and Android, from where it can be downloaded and used. Even in the times of covid pandemic when everyone was going through a financial crunch, Asort has been the one platform that has kept its business community upbeat, helped them with sales, and didn't get discouraged with their business idea but instilled confidence: Roshan Singh Bisht Co-Founder of Dynamic Beneficial Accord Marketing Pvt Ltd.

The sections - Personal, Business, Dashboard, Team Analytics on the Asort app - help users to evaluate business and track their progress so far. The “My Feed” section on the Asort app is very useful for the user, under this section there are reviews of vendor partners, digital influencers, etc., which helps the user to analyze a lot. The Dashboard section connects business owners to business volume, previous cycle revenue, credit available, etc., which in a way helps in understanding both the growth scope and progress in their business. Similarly, many other options come up on exploring the Asort app which is very useful for the user.

Asort Company is soaring high in the country with its extensive co-commerce platform. Evolving through the diverse phases of its expansion, Asort Company has built trust among business holders and consumers hailing from different parts of the country. Roshan Singh Bisht – CEO and Co-Founder of Dynamic Beneficial Accord Marketing Pvt Ltd says that, “Today Asort Company is considered to be one of the leading examples of digital India, which is also inspiring many individuals for new start-ups and experiment with their unique business ideas, and as far as the trust-building and ethics are concerned Asort Company equally believes prioritizing right ethical governance. It also more emphasizes inspiring consumers to be well informed about their rights as a consumer and companies’ ethics they should follow.” : Roshan Singh Bisht – CEO and Co-Founder of Dynamic Beneficial Accord Marketing Pvt Ltd.
