

Danny G Felix Makes the Audience Groove to his Alluring R&B and Soul Music Compilations

Artist Danny G Felix makes a solid impression in the industry as a proficient music composer by dropping two new tracks that perfectly pitch his stand-out artistry.

the world demands and more of an artful portrayal of an artist's perspective. Having garnered acclaim for his stand-out and sophisticated music compilations, an artist who has embraced the best elements of R&B and soul to expand his reach in the industry is Danny G Felix. The music composer is way beyond the average music curator who doesn't conform to the strict genre rules but has always been inclined to experiment with organic sounds to enthrall his legit fans. It's the approach that the musician takes while creating his songs that takes his artistry to yet another boldly creative level. Be it his choice of melodies, his stunning blend of sounds, or innovative practices, and the artist has marveled at the art of flawless music production that makes him one of the most prolific composers of today.

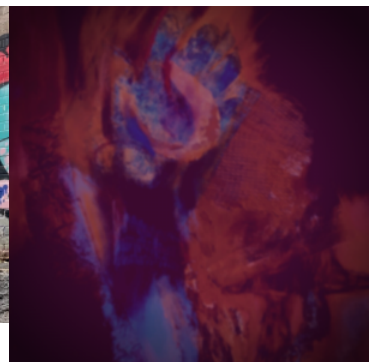

Rather than using similar soundscapes, the artist has used modern creative improvisation to design his latest tracks 'Dignity \(with MANA\)' and 'Open Highway \(with MANA\)' that immediately catches the attention for their smooth and heart-touching warm sounds. The songs are infused with a charming female vocal that makes the listening experience even more impactful. Each song is wrapped with striking, intricate, and entrancing harmonies that quite effortlessly build up the mood. The soft vocals meander through the soundscape while drawing the focus on the artist's fantastically designed sound web. While the songs offer deeply engaging moments that are purely intended to offer a good time to the listener. Filled with jazz, pop, Latin, kizomba, kompa, and several other intriguing sound elements, the tracks are a fusion of brilliant organic fragments that offer a satisfying melodic hook.

Coming from Australia, Danny G Felix is a pianist, composer, and trumpeter, who has worked with many greats like Tirso Duarte, Mayito Rivera, and others. The artist is also the founding director of two of Sydney's most significant weekly jam sessions that are further responsible for the discovery of many talented artists. The artist combines his experiences with his commendable creativity to compose songs that explore the indescribable feelings of people from all around the world. Built under the label Malo Malo, the two new tracks 'Dignity (with MANA)' and 'Open Highway (with MANA)' present everything that is needed to solidify the musician's position in the competitive genre.
