

DataGardener will offer an exclusive discount to NACFB members and exhibitors at this year's NACFB Expo

At NACFB DataGardener plans to showcase its latest technological developments, including its recently launched Lending Intelligence Tool

United Kingdom, London, Sep 23, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - A leading UK provider of data-driven insights that help organisations manage risk, grow and thrive, will be exhibiting at this year's NACFB Commercial Finance Expo, returning to Birmingham's NEC, at stand D35 from 09.30-16.30 on Thursday 30th September 2021.

The focus of the event and conferences is very much on commercial finance and the supply of services to the commercial finance industry. "We look forward to connecting with brokers, underwriters, and other ancillary service providers attending as well as the other companies exhibiting to understand the industry's greatest challenges and to provide insights and solutions to help them achieve success," said Tarun Kumar, Founder, and CEO for DataGardener.

DataGardener plans to showcase its latest technological developments, including its recently launched Lending Intelligence Tool, which makes analysing and prospecting in the Lending industry more efficient. The tool makes searching through many data sources by hand a thing of the past. DataGardener has created a seamless experience that eliminates the hassle of locating the information that commercial finance professionals need to move their business from prospecting to closing faster. DataGardener will be offering an exclusive discount to NACFB members and companies exhibiting at the event; DataGardener's Co-Founder & Director, Robert Holland, said: "We know from our connections and contacts throughout the broker community that the last year has been up and down. We know that some finance brokers have been hit hard by the pandemic and the Government-backed loan schemes."

All delegates and exhibitors will find the discount code in the DataGardener brochure, which will be included in the event's promotional bags and distributed at the event's entrance by the NACFB expo organisers.

Mark Bennett, Commercial Director at DataGardener, added, "We would also like to offer brokers the opportunity to generate some income and become a part of our 'Introducers Program'. Any brokers that refer clients to DataGardener will earn a 20% commission."

"At DataGardener we believe that the power of collaboration between RegTech companies, brokers, and Commercial Finance institutions will be at the forefront of innovation for the financial services industry. Tomorrow's solutions will be born from the power of data insights and innovation. It is this belief that has driven the growth of DataGardener," Said Harry Murtagh, Operations Manager at DataGardener.
