

JC Moore & Associates adds leading finance lawyer to New York office

New York, 24 February 2020 – Global law firm JC Moore & Associates is pleased to announce that Stephen Martle has joined the firm's Finance practice as a partner in New York.

New York, New York City, Sep 13, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Global law firm JC Moore & Associates is pleased to announce that Stephen Martle has joined the firm's Finance practice as a partner in New York.

Martle joins the firm from Seattle, where he was special counsel in the Market States Group. He advises leading financial institutions, investment banks, private equity sponsors, and corporate issuers in domestic and cross-border offerings of debt and equity securities. As part of his practice, he advises financial institutions and multinational companies on a wide range of infrastructure-related projects in America.

Martle has led a number of the most prominent recent capital markets transactions in America. He has represented major sponsors and investment banks in project financings in the oil and gas and renewables sectors nationwide.

He has worked on transactions ranging from investment-grade offerings of debt and equity securities to high-yield and structured bonds throughout Europe and America. Martle has experience advising on M&A transactions, commercial financings, and leveraged buyouts.

"The JC Moore & Associates Finance team in New York has extensive experience working with clients on financings in America," Martle said. "Together we are well-positioned to assist financial institutions, investment banks, private equity sponsors, and corporate issuers on a wide range of matters."

"We are very happy to welcome Stephen, who strengthens our ability to deliver on high-end project financing, high yield, and corporate transactions in America. He also brings the energy and enthusiasm that we think is a hallmark of JC Moore & Associates," said the Head Of Corporate Law for the firm.

Media Contact

JC Moore & Associates - New York Lawyers

info@jcmooreandassociates.com

+1 (518) 205 9215

352 Park Avenue - 16th Floor

Source : JC Moore & Associates - New York Lawyers

See on IssueWire