

Karma's Tea Embraces Jazz Like Never Before in 'Come Come Down'

Karma's Tea gives a new face to contemporary jazz by fusing exotic pop elements in their latest single 'Come Come Down', a smooth production with sensible melodies to hook.

New York City, Sep 10, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Immersing the audience with their brilliant jazz and pop fusion, a band that has set the bar higher for others to achieve is Karma's Tea. Created by Mike Desroches on keyboards, and singer-songwriter Mystina, the jazz/ pop band fuses sultry sounds of contemporary jazz with a smooth touch of R&B to create an exotic melody that instantly hooks the listener. The singer has a fantastic vocal tone that breathes life into the songs and the stunning musical arrangements contributed by the other artist makes their every composition stand out tall. Both the musicians bring their realness and extraordinary elements to the scene and blend them with utmost perfection to engage the listeners like never before.

At the latest, they have released an amazing jazz and pop concoction that highlights both their songwriting brilliance and their rhythmic prowess. Blending all things sensitive, soft, yet powerful, the band has curated the perfect success formula in their latest single 'Come Come Down' that takes the listeners down an almost-hypnotic musical journey. Mystina's ethereal vocal quality coupled with the fantastic jazz musical design creates a groovy ambiance that builds the mood and lets the listener embrace the finest elements of jazz. Beautifully crafted from the heart, the song reflects on their passion to create unique melodies.

Karma's Tea is easily riding the charts with their all-exclusive musical productions that offer refreshing good vibes. Their amazing performance in the new single 'Come Come Down' establishes a clear connection with the listeners for its heartfelt lyricism and most importantly, the way the singer lends her jazz-drenched vocals to heighten the audio experiences wins all hearts at once. Mystina is a veteran performer who draws her musical influence from Janelle Monae, Michael Jackson, and others. Overall it's a song that is sure to elevate their presence in the world of music. Hear out the full song on Spotify and follow the band on Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram for more details on their upcoming projects.

Just go for this track 'Come Come Down' by Karma's Tea :

<https://open.spotify.com/track/7InvdrX13ObUK2x0UkVR62>

Media Contact

The Tunes Club

info@thetunesclub.com

Source : Karma's Tea

See on IssueWire