

Leawo Offers Up to 50% off Discount on PhotoIns to Beautify Precious Memories This Summer

Leawo Software recently launched its special online sales for 2021 back-to-school season, offering up to 50% off discount on its AI photo editor to help people easily beautify and edit their photos.

Guangdong, Shenzhen, Sep 13, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Summer isn't over yet, but more than a month has passed since the beginning of school, and people's lives are gradually on track. This year, many restrictions are loosening with safety precautions in place, which means many students and teachers may enjoy their summer vacations in spectacular resort getaways. "The pent-up demand is real," says Betsy O'Rourke, CMO of the largest national park concessions management company in the United States. "People have been sequestered for a year, and many guests have saved money, so the desire to travel is in a swift recovery." To help people make this summer the one to remember, Leawo Software, a leading developer and supplier specialized in multimedia solutions and data management software, recently introduced the announcement of its 2021 Back2School Gifts & Sales online deals, including up to 50% off discount on its PhotoIns to help people enhance and edit their precious photos taken this summer.

During the whole of September, customers can enjoy various discounts and coupons offered by Leawo Software. For example, Leawo offers up to 50% discounts on its top-selling bundles and products, including Leawo All-in-One bundle, 11-in-1 Multimedia Solution bundle, Best 4K/UHD Blu-ray toolkit, Leawo PhotoIns, and so on. Moreover, for those customers who only want to purchase a single product, Leawo also offers irresistible discounts, including a 40% off discount on its Blu-ray products, such as Blu-ray Copy and UHD Copy, and a 30% off discount on its site-wide products, such as iTransfer and Music Recorder. Among various discounts and products, Leawo PhotoIns, as one of the most user-friendly and intelligent photo editors, is the most worthwhile product to purchase in this event.

Leawo PhotoIns, powered by advanced AI technology and a smart algorithm, is designed as a professional but easy-to-use photo editor. Photo editing is the art of enhancing an image to make it look more like what people saw with their eyes. Although cameras are great tools to capture countless images, they are also notorious for producing photos of soft colors, low contrast, lens distortion, etc. Photo editing can help correct these problems and show the true beauty of photos in the way people remember. Up to now, PhotoIns consists of 2 modules – Photo Enhancer and Photo BG Remover. Photo Enhancer adopts AI technology to adjust colors, exposure, and lightning on the photos to make photos look more comfortable. Photo BG Remover can intelligently remove photo background and unwanted objects from photos by a smart algorithm. What's more, people can add effects to create different looks for their photos with PhotoIns. The possibilities are infinite when it comes to editing photos with PhotoIns.

Start today, until Sep. 30th, 2021, people can purchase PhotoIns with a 50% off discount coupon by default when they head to its official purchase page. Instead of its full price, people can save $39.95 for a lifetime license and save $29.95 for a one-year license. Furthermore, if people only want to purchase one module, they can enjoy a 30% discount by going to the end of the promotion page, then copying and pasting the 30% off coupon code to its official page to activate the discount. In order to let everyone use good products, all Leawo products are free to download and experience. People can navigate to its official page and find their favorite products to download on their PC or Mac.
