Get to know Family Physician Dr. Louis Train, who serves patients in Houston, Texas.

New York, New York City, Sep 7, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Train is a board-certified family physician in practice with AcuCare Health & Wellness in Houston, Texas.

He works as a consultant, examining injured workers & diagnosing, prescribing, and following up. With special interest and knowledge of anatomy & physical medicine, he is able to diagnose such unusual injuries as thoracic outlet syndrome, piriformis syndrome, and high ankle sprain in addition to the common injuries.

Back in the early days of his academic career, Dr. Train graduated with his medical degree from the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Toronto in 1962. He then went on to serve his internship at Scarborough General Hospital in 1963.

Subsequent to his education, the doctor attained board certification in family medicine through the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Among Dr. Train's most notable achievements include Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2016), Patients' Choice Award (2018, 2016), and On-Time Doctor Award (2018).
