Listen to Matt Boone's new song "She Just Gets Me." Available for download and streaming on all online retail outlets and streaming platforms now.

Tennessee, Nashville, Sep 5, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Cavalla Records' Matt Boone released his new single "She Just Gets Me," a catchy, heartwarming, fun, country song. The multi-award-winning country music artist with unforgettable vocals releases his second song under the Cavalla Records label just after coming off a successful short tour and following his last single "Main Street Heaven."

Available for download and streaming HERE and available on all online retail and streaming platforms now.

Boone is not a newcomer to the country music scene having tours that kept him on the road for 270 days a year. This true country artist's versatility in this catchy tune, delivering deep, smooth Country vocals in each verse will have audiences wanting to listen over and over.

In addition to being a talented vocalist and songwriter, Boone is an outstanding entertainer, delivering engaging performances that are high energy and include something for the entire audience. His last single spent seven consecutive weeks at number one on a radio network's Christian/Country countdown. Cavalla Records CEO Tinamarie Passantino states "Matt Boone continues to push forward in his music career and is an up and coming force in country music."

Recorded at the legendary OmniSound Studio in Nashville, Tennessee, and written by Jason Hamor, "She Just Gets Me," with its fun upbeat vibe is sure to be a crowd-pleaser.

Boone is managed by Tinamarie Passantino. For more information, please visit Matt's website at www.mattboone.net or www.cavallarecords.com.
