New York, New York City, Sep 10, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Baucom is a remarkable pediatrician who welcomes patients at her private practice, Infinity Pediatric and Adolescent Medicine, in Smithfield, Virginia. She opened the doors to her practice in March 2021.

"At Infinity Pediatric and Adolescent Medicine, we collaborate with our families and our community to help every individual we serve reach their full physical, mental, and social health potential. Our providers are passionate about the care of healthy children and adolescents, as well as the care of special needs children and adolescents. We provide comprehensive care for medical needs and mental health concerns, from birth through age 21”, states the official website of Infinity Pediatric and Adolescent Medicine.

Dr. Baucom earned her medical degree in 1982 from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Medicine. She then joined the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences and completed a residency in pediatrics (1982-1985). She obtained her undergraduate degree at Wake Forest University in 1978.

Following her training, Dr. Baucom attained board certification pediatrics with the American Board of Pediatrics. The American Board of Pediatrics was founded in 1933. It is one of the 24 certifying boards of the American Board of Medical Specialties. The ABP is an independent and nonprofit organization.

Pediatrics is the branch of medicine that involves the medical care of infants, children, and adolescents. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends individuals be under pediatric care up to the age of 21. Pediatricians provide medical care to people ranging in age from newborns to young adults. They are trained to examine, diagnose, and treat children with a wide variety of injuries and illnesses through all of their developmental stages, as they grow and mature.
