Soundtrack Composer Drops New Adventurously Peppy EP

Telangana, Hyderabad, Sep 12, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Acclaimed Indian composer Cecil V is excited to announce the release of his fiery electronic EP titled Plena Ignis (Latin for 'full of fire'), to be available on streaming platforms on the 6th of September 2021.

Mastered by Paul Ashmore and Nick Burchall of Audio Animals (whose credits include the likes of Judas And The Black Messiah and Frozen 2 among others), Plena Ignis contains seven tracks, ranging from trance, through techno and house, to dance-pop.

- Plena Ignis (Feat. Gina Mirenda)
- Unrestrained
- Immortal
- Babel's Cellar
- Fugue
- By My Side
- By My Side (Piano Version)

In the works during the major part of 2020, Cecil V regards Plena Ignis as a homecoming in more ways than one, with the EP serving to channel the adrenaline through restlessness to hope. Says Cecil, "Plena Ignis is my ode to the joys of old, my tribute to the resilience of the present, and to hope that we will meet again renewed. Were it not for the memories of old friends, or for the unceasing faith placed in me by the family that drove me all the way, the EP would never have been released."

A four-time Global Music Awards recipient, and rated among the top-twenty composers by the Oticons International Agency in 2018, Cecil V has, for the first time, released an EP independently, with emphasis upon creativity and experimentation, while dwelling within the mainstream realm.
