

The Real Talk Music Conference is Poised To Bring Together Some of the Music Industry's Most Influential Playmakers

Industry Veterans and Independent Artists Join Forces in Atlanta on March 2022!

Atlanta, Georgia Sep 14, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The Real Talk Music Conference is set to take place on March 4-6, 2022 in the thriving metropolis of Atlanta, GA. This event is poised to bring together some of the most influential playmakers in the music industry! The overarching purpose of the TRTMC is to provide a viable platform for Indie artists and veteran artists to co-mingle under the same roof in an effort to foster mentorship opportunities, as well as, to share and develop synergistic creative experiences. The Real Talk Music Conference has a proven track record of success! The inaugural conference took place in our nation's Capital, and attendees from throughout the DMV area were able to meet with and learn from some of the most renowned voices in the urban music industry!

Steve “Face” Riley, the conference coordinator and founder, is excited to bring this illustrious music conference to Metro Atlanta this year. The Real Talk Music Conference will provide a platform for emerging artists to showcase their talents in the presence of industry veterans. “The Real Talk Music Conference” aka TRTMC, is engineering the push in the new music, film, and entertainment markets. Our concept is to bridge the gap between the old school hip-hop generation and the new school generation, through our music showcases/concerts, educational workshops, and listening sessions”, said Mr. Riley.

The Real Talk Music Conference boasts an impressive group of panelists and performers, as well as a myriad of educational opportunities for Indie artists to learn from established artists and playmakers within the music industry. “Our main reason for creating and producing this Real Talk Music Conference is to educate the independent artist, producer, and songwriter on how to navigate through the business side of the music industry. As we know, to create a career in the music business it’s more than 90% of the business that makes the independent artist successful. With the creation of this much-needed platform we intend to put music business education in the forefront of all independent urban music genres”, concluded Mr. Riley.
