With NEXEA proven track record and numerous high-growth startups, a large network of angel investors ranging from successful CEOs, Entrepreneurs and C-Suite executives have gathered to invest and share their experience and expertise

The way NEXEA Angel Investment Network works with its investors and startups is unique. NEXEA does not gain profit until the investors do and even then, only the profit is charged. Thinesh Kumar, one of the founding management of Lapasar said that "Back then I was an outsider, I didn't know where to raise cash, how to play the tech game, how to raise capital and I stumbled upon NEXEA and NEXEA was sort of an insider they have a lot of insights on how to raise cash, how to do valuation, how do we amplify the numbers up, how do we go for growth and follow on investments as well... Not only did they give us money in the beginning... but they eventually open up doors in terms of business development, putting us into more companies, more business opportunities and on top of that connecting us to fuller funding... and sort of continuously introducing us to more and more potential investors for our larger and larger rounds."

NEXEA Angel Investor Network not only helps the startups but also the Investors. To name a few features and privileges available, NEXEA handles the legal aspects of the startup investments, source for and track new startups for the investors saving them from the tedious processes. Investors that join are able to invest as a group allowing them to invest in more startups with the same amount of investment capital which drastically decreases the risk of startup investment.
