Ashesh Varma is a serial entrepreneur who has founded and successfully grown Web999, an IT company specializing in web development. Ashesh had launched the company in 2008 and now provides services like PPC, SMM, SEO, web development.

He has done so much struggle and hard work to build this business from the ground up with his team of talented professionals. His skills as a leader have helped him grow Web999 into one of India's top digital marketing agencies that consistently delivers high-quality products at competitive prices for Fortune 500 companies from around the world.

He's been an entrepreneur since he was 12 years old when he started his first business selling pens to his classmates. He went on to study Computer Science at NYU and then attended Singularity University in Silicon Valley where he found out about how technology can solve some of the world's toughest problems.

In 2008, Ashesh founded Web999 with the goal of helping others find success in tech. Today, they have helped over 350+ students start their careers in tech by teaching them the skills they need to get jobs as web developers or be successful entrepreneurs themselves.

He is a web developer having developed websites for many reputed companies.

The initial days were very difficult but on hard work and dedication, I have achieved the heights of success.

It was not possible without the help given by my family members especially my dad who always stood by me in every condition and shared his knowledge with me which helped to improve my skills in digital marketing & web development.

I always believed in quality work and that's why I spent a lot of time perfecting my skills.

The secret behind my success is hard work and dedication towards every project taken by me.

The same spirit has inspired me to start up a company named "Web999" which aims at providing high-quality web applications and services at nominal rates.

We have a team of highly skilled and talented members who are committed to providing fully satisfying results.
