Get to know Certified Nurse Practitioner, Carly Greene, who serves patients in Denver, Colorado.

New York, New York City, Oct 20, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Carly is an accomplished nurse practitioner currently affiliated with Kaiser Permanente Franklin Medical in Denver, Colorado. She specializes in family medicine and cardiac care.

“I chose to work in family practice because it is such a diverse and large area to work in. There is something new every day and because of this, I am continually learning new things. It also allows me the opportunity to collaborate with so many other members of the medical community when taking care of patients” expressed Carly.

Regarding her educational background, she earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from South Dakota State University, and her Master of Science in Nursing degree from Regent’s University.

A Certified Nurse Practitioner (NP-C) is an advanced practice registered nurse. Nurse Practitioners hold certification and are trained to assess patient needs, order and interpret diagnostic and laboratory tests, diagnose disease, as well as formulate and prescribe treatment plans.

On a more personal note, Carly has two school-aged boys and a rescue dog named Stella. She thrives by being active and staying connected to her family and friends. She enjoys going out and trying new things, travelling, and trying new foods. She became a nurse practitioner because she greatly enjoys taking care of others. She attributes her success to her hard work and dedication to her profession.
