

Holapick Rolled Out Its Trendy Fall Collection Of Outerwear And Casual Dresses

The online store has added a few unique designs to its new and trendy fall collection.

Hong Kong S.A.R., Hong Kong, Oct 28, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Holapick, one of the most sought-after online e-stores, has recently unveiled its new fall outerwear collection. According to the owners of the store, the new collection features some of the latest designs and cuts that they wanted to unveil much ahead of the festive season. The store officials have also stated that few items from the new collection can also be availed at great discounts.

In keeping with the season of fall and the approaching winter, the collection this time focuses on attractive prints, colours, and mostly soft, thick textured clothing. "There is a growing need among fashionistas to be inspired from basic and natural surroundings. From long sleeve casual dresses for women to jumpsuits, tops and shirts to trousers; designers at our store have weaved simplicity in styling clothes. There are ethnic pieces too, in addition to formal wear. This new line will have all these and more," said one of the senior officials of the store.

The new launch of the collections will be marked with few more surprises in offers and deals for customers. "The next month is special. And we have made all such arrangements for some of the most awaited offers, which customers should take a great liking to. Besides, our fashion designers have reinvented old styles and juxtaposed with new themes and prints. These will be few of the highlights that buyers can expect this time," he added.

Holapick ensures that the shipping charges are applied, based on the locations. Also, the company website contains all such details of refunds and replacements, which customers can rely upon, if they need the same.

When the CEO of the company was available at the press meet, he said, "We are always looking for new ideas. This innovative line of clothing is all about celebrating the season of fall. There are discounted offers on few of introductory items too. However, once the sale period is over, the prices of these items will be the same. A combination of quality fashion wear and affordable pricing is our USP, and we have never deviated from it. All the collections at our store will reflect the same trend. The fall collection, being a part of the Holapick brand, will showcase the existing trend too."
