Singing Cosplayer Hikari made her debut on social media on January 1st this year and she quickly became a massive hit for streaming the Vocaloid cover song 'Yume to Hazakura' (Lyrics and music by Aoki Gekkou) by Hatsune Miku. The song was released to the world on April 20th. It was ranked in 36 countries in total on the J-POP chart of Apple Music / iTunes and got No.1 in 14 countries including France, Indonesia, Thailand, Malaysia, Vietnam, Italy, Holland, Luxembourg, Poland, Mongol, Ukraina, Kazakhstan, Macao, and South Africa.

Her activities have been highly celebrated in Europe as she joined HYPER JAPAN ONLINE 2021 in the UK in July. She appeared in the event in 3 roles as a singer, cosplayer, and fashion model.

People constantly loved what she wore in the music video and this time she chose her favorite Japanese clothes brand called "JEANASIS" which she enjoys wearing regularly. Hikari wore the rock taste costume chosen especially for the image of this song.

Fans might be familiar with Singing Cosplayer Hikari wearing cosplay, school uniform, and kimonos but this time people can enjoy a different side of her with a rock spirit.

Also, on Saturday, October 2nd, from 12:30 pm to 1.30 pm Indian time, the day of the worldwide distribution launch of her music, she will be appearing as a live guest for one hour on the radio program "MUTEKI" on the French terrestrial FM radio station Canut! It will be available not only in France and Japan but also around the world online, so be sure to check it out.
