These "Faces of Rap Mothers®™," present a first of its kind collaborative music compilation as women who are artists, business owners, relatives, or mothers of Rap and Hip-Hop's most infamous Superstar Icons and represent the importance of women in the education, representation, support, and creative endeavors associated with Rap and Hip-Hop through self-exposure as artisans themselves. These are women who have risen, often in the shadow of Ultra-Famous Rap and Hip-Hop performers who they love. One can only imagine being a cousin, niece, mother, sister, or wife of an infamous personality and quietly observing rank and file media moguls, industry giants, and waves of success involved in the ebbs and flows in the tides of life featuring extreme highs and lows on the path to stardom. These are the strongest of these women featuring elements of the soul while remaining earnest to the core of life and self-fulfillment as demonstrated in, "Faces of Rap Mothers®™" Corporation, Network, Publications, and now, originally remade compositions and music productions.
