ABOUT THE ARTIST

Vermin & the Beachrat, also known as Joe Lamore, is a rising artist whose upcoming single, 'Dinner by Candlelight', is out October 15th and will be available to stream on all major streaming platforms! Having always had a natural affinity for music, the Massachusetts-born singer-songwriter began his journey into music playing the accordion in the 2nd Grade and has honed his craft as a multi-instrumentalist over the years to become the artist that he is today.

After playing in a number of bands over the years, Vermin & the Beachrat made the decision to embark on his solo career in 2009 and went on to release his seven-track debut EP: 'Crossin the Line'. Due to familial commitments, Joe took a break from the music scene for a number of years before being asked to play at a few family gatherings in 2019; sparking his songwriting passion once again. Although he receives inspiration from a number of styles, Vermin & the Beachrat combines a variety of compositional elements to form his unique and authentic sound.

To date, Vermin & the Beachrat has three albums and eight singles/EPs in his Spotify discography. One of his most popular tracks, 'All in This Together', has amassed almost six thousand eight hundred streams on Spotify alone. FEATURED RELEASE

'Dinner by Candlelight' by Vermin & the Beachrat, is out October 15th and will be available to stream on all major streaming platforms! The single last around three and a half minutes and sits at 120bpm. The track commences with a four-second introductory percussive section that builds a sense of anticipation for the verse. Vermin & the Beachrat's clean and emotive vocal color seamlessly synchronizes with the smooth vibe of the instrumentation. The foundational acoustic guitar progression combines with the melodic electric guitar and rhythmic beat to provide the perfect platform for the vocal line.

A lead guitar break from around 0:48 to 0:58 delivers just the right amount of dynamic diversity to break up the vocal and ensure that this single is engaging throughout. The subtle use of an atmospheric vocal reverb adds a creative flair and depth to the overall sound without detracting from the lyrical prominence. An instrumental section that kicks in from around the 3:17 mark acts as the ideal transition for the outro. By the time 'Dinner by Candlelight' draws to a close, you'll find yourself humming along with the catchy hook and in need of hitting that repeat button for another listen.

From the well-balanced production and memorable instrumentation to the stylistic vocal performance and authentic lyricism, fans of Vermin & the Beachrat, as well as those who appreciate new music, will definitely want to hear this single.
