Sponsorship Director

Diversity Co-Director

Treasurer Director

To apply, please send a resume and letter of interest to boston@womensenergynetwork.org.

We continue to provide our audience with in-person and virtual events in our three pillars: Community, Expertise, and Professional Development. In addition, the board continues efforts to launch programming targeted at female executives for 2021 and beyond to foster greater collaboration and communication between senior leaders in the Boston area.

About WEN Boston

The Women's Energy Network Boston Chapter (WEN Boston) is part of an international association of professionals who work across the energy value chain. WEN Boston was established in October 2017 with a mission to build a close-knit community of women in energy that is focused on education, career development, and advocacy. Its goal is to develop a valuable network of women in the industry, providing programming that shapes and enhances their careers. Visit www.womensenergynetwork.org/boston to learn more.

Those interested in joining WEN Boston can register for membership online here or by emailing boston@womensenergynetwork.org.
