

Afrobeat Singer Joseph Lanyo Drops Debut Single Titled 'Akpe'

A rising musical artist who has truly stayed true to his roots, Joseph Lanyo, introduces a debut single titled 'Akpe.' The song is available on major digital music platforms and YouTube.

Los Angeles, California Nov 20, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Joseph Lanyo, a young Afrobeat/Afro Gospel musical artist from the United States, is delighted to present 'Akpe,' his stunning and highly anticipated first song <https://open.spotify.com/track/7MOWjhDfnShltSqoldpeCi>. The song is Joseph's first single to be released on the global music streaming service. It has a vibrant and stimulating rhythm that makes listeners want to get up and dance. “I’m ecstatic to share my debut single, ‘Akpe.’” This song represents a significant milestone in my musical career, as well as my gratitude to our creator. God is responsible for all of my current accomplishments. “I hope you like the music,” Joseph Lanyo stated. ‘Akpe’ is accessible on all major music streaming services such as Spotify, TIDAL, Apple Music, Amazon Music, Deezer, Napster, iTunes, Pandora, and more.

Joseph Lanyo was born and raised in Togo, West of Africa. He spoke both Ewe, his native dialect, and French, which he learned as a second language. He remains true to his cultural roots despite having lived and been surrounded by western culture from the age of fourteen. Joseph Lanyo’s work contains African influences and musical aspects. Thus, The music produces a beautiful fusion of melodies of culture from across the Atlantic Ocean.

Joseph Lanyo is a brilliant musician with African influences. African instruments, gospel, and musical performers such as Burna Boy, Timaya, and Mr. Eazi have all inspired his work. He creates African rhythms filled with entrancing lyrical choir melodies and stuttering percussion.

He began singing when he was a child and performed at ‘Le Rocher’s recitals At the age of nine, his school at the time. When he first performed in front of a crowd, he felt the energy of the crowd so true that he realized that music was his calling. Since then, he has participated in school and church choirs, pursuing his passion for music as well as his deep love for God. Joseph Lanyo is a Togolese American Afrobeat/Afro Gospel singer-songwriter. Joseph’s African-influenced music expresses his unfettered expression of his inner self, authentic feelings, and a connection to the world around him, as well as his ardent admiration of God.

About Joseph Lanyo

He wants to create songs that people can relate to and experience. Joseph’s sound is a symphony of all the ingredients that have helped Afrobeats become the rhythmically superior genre that it is today. Visit <https://linktr.ee/JosephLanyo> for more information on Joseph Lanyo’s debut single.

Media Contact

Joseph

ximar44175@keagenan.com

Source : Joseph Lanyo

See on IssueWire