

Artist O'Neill Fernandes is showcasing his instrumental expertise in 'Classic Rock...Vol.7'

A talented Pop Artist from Perth, O'Neill Fernandes in his musical cover 'Classic Rock...Vol.7' gives the flavour of classic rock with some fragrance of modernity.

Perth, Nov 9, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - A very talented and promising O'Neill Fernandes artist has been showcasing his deep-rooted sensibility in music through his instrumental covers of the hit songs that cut across generations. His latest album, 'Classic Rock...Vol.7' is one among them. It contains music across the generations from Nat King Cole's 'Those Lazy, Crazy Days of Summer' (1963) to Abba's new singles 'Don't Shut Me' and 'Just a Notion' (2021), 'Long tall glasses', and 'Two Tickets to Paradise'. The tracks exhibit a soulful, heart-toughing effect of the guitar. The strumming of the guitar is so soulful and vivid that one cannot help being lost in it. Moreover, it gives listeners and access to the world of pure music.

Artist, despite having a hectic work life, has always stayed connected with music. His unflinching attitude towards music is reflected through his flawless attempt to make instrumental covers of old classic rock songs. With his covers, the old songs get a new fragrance of modernity that renders the uniqueness to his tracks. The tracks from the album, 'Classic Rock...Vol.7', is not deprived of this expertise. All the 20 tracks from the album possess the nostalgic flavour of classical music.

A virtuoso in music, O'Neill Fernandes is impeccable with an instrumental affair in his album. The dominant instrument of his covers and especially this one is the guitar which seems to be his favourite. The Pop Artist from Perth has shown already his greatness in music. However, his effort to be an established name in the world of music is multiplied by many times with each song he composes. SoundCloud is witnessing its growing fan-followings. All his covers are being played many times. Moreover, his tracks are able to make his audience feel an intrinsic world of music. His YouTube and Facebook pages are also available to know his works in detail.
