Get to know Plastic Surgeon Dr. David A. Horvath, who serves patients throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

New York City, New York Nov 29, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A skilled plastic surgeon, Dr. Horvath works with patients at his private practice - Horvath Plastic & Cosmetic Surgery Center - serving Abington, Doylestown, Huntingdon Valley, and other nearby communities in Pennsylvania.

Performing all aspects of both aesthetic and reconstructive plastic surgery, he has a special interest in breast surgery, including augmentation, reduction, lift, and particularly the revision of prior augmentation breast surgery. He also has an interest and experience in body contouring surgery, performing the latest techniques after bariatric surgery.

Raised locally in Allentown, Pennsylvania, Dr. Horvath went to Muhlenberg College for his undergraduate education in Biology. He received his medical degree at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia and completed a residency in general surgery at Geisinger Medical Center. He then traveled to Indianapolis to complete a residency in plastic and reconstructive surgery at Indiana University Medical Center.

Subsequently, he accepted an extended fellowship in cosmetic plastic surgery while in Indianapolis and then went on to complete a fellowship in advanced cosmetic surgery in Miami, Florida, where he trained under world-renowned surgeons and some of the leading innovators in plastic surgery, including the past President of the American Society for Aesthetic Plastic Surgery.

After completing his training, Dr. Horvath was recruited to the Cleveland Clinic Foundation in Cleveland, Ohio to help build a regional Surgical Program in Plastic Surgery. During that time, he participated in the Aesthetic and Cosmetic Plastic Surgery Fellowship Program, teaching residents the newest techniques in aesthetic plastic surgery. Continuing to mentor future generations of plastic surgeons, he participates in the education of plastic surgery residents at Temple University.

During his fellowship in Florida, he developed a special interest and skill in all aspects of facial cosmetic surgery. His reconstructive interests lie in breast reconstruction and reconstruction after skin cancer removal. His specific focus lies in obtaining the most aesthetic possible reconstruction.

Following his training, the doctor attained board certification in plastic surgery through the American Board of Plastic Surgery (ABPS). The mission of the ABPS is to promote safe, ethical, efficacious plastic surgery to the public by maintaining high standards for the education, examination, certification, and continuous certification of plastic surgeons as specialists and subspecialists.

Remaining up to date in his field, he is an active member of the American Society for Aesthetic Plastic Surgery, the Robert Ivy Society of Plastic Surgeons, the Pennsylvania Medical Society, and the Montgomery County Medical Society.

Plastic surgery is a surgical specialty involving the restoration, reconstruction, or alteration of the human body. It can be divided into two main categories - reconstructive surgery and cosmetic surgery. A plastic surgeon's primary responsibility is performing surgical and non-surgical procedures, and they use a variety of reparative and reconstructive techniques to get the job done.

Among his most notable achievements, Dr. Horvath has been the recipient of the Patients' Choice

Award (2018, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2013), Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2018, 2017, 2015, 2013), On-Time Doctor Award (2018, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014), and Patients' Choice 5th Anniversary Award (2020).
