Get to know Family Practitioner Dr. Elisabeth M. Cousens, who serves patients in Columbus, Ohio.

New York City, New York Nov 8, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A board-certified family practitioner, Dr. Cousens sees patients at her private practice in Columbus, Ohio.

Beginning her professional pursuits by graduating with her medical degree from the University of Glasgow in Scotland in 1964, she went on to further her training at Abington Memorial Hospital, where she completed her residency in family medicine.

As a testament to her continued education, the doctor is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.
