Services offered by AliveAdvisor are designed to help organizations achieve new levels of agility, efficiency, performance, value, and digital maturity. A host of transforming business services cover various aspects like procurements, human resources, IT, and finance.

Let us look at all that we can do for you.

- Business Development Strategy: Formation and implementation of major goals and initiatives is the answer to the success of your global business expansion plan. It propels growth to new levels of prosperity. A team of experts at AliveAdvisor will redefine the way businesses will have to work to be successful in a global market. The process involves identifying, nurturing, and acquiring new clients and business opportunities to accomplish set goals. It is your roadmap to eminence.
- Financial Forecasting & Analysis: It is always good to know what your business requires. This process involves the financial requirements and outcomes of how your business will perform in the future. From income statements to operating profits, experts at AliveAdvisor will build a financial forecast for your company irrespective of whether your business is a startup or a successful enterprise. After all, the fruits of international business expansion are invariably ripened by diligent financial analysis, projection, and planning.
- Digital Marketing & Social Media Strategy: Digital marketing or online marketing is the new buzzword fueling eCommerce. The COVID-19 pandemic has aptly amplified its due importance. The tech-savvy AliveAdvisor platform will effectively set your business up in this virtual space before millions of buyers and sellers worldwide. Social media that pay is a brainer and marketers are positively utilizing these communities to put the message where your audience hangs out. Social media functionally leverages online marketing efforts and to boost the growth of businesses worldwide.
- Secretarial Services: AliveAdvisor makes it a point to stay updated with corporate compliance with changing legislation across countries worldwide. Our efforts are meant to keep you free of bother and to enable you to focus on running your business. New business growth opportunities across borders imply coordinating overseas expansion and complying with the legal and administrative requirements of the host country. There also are certain prerequisites that have to be met to set foot. The services of our professionals will come in handy to take care of while you roll out your business on foreign soil.
- Talent Acquisition: Organizing business operations in a foreign country is a different ball game. Knowing when to hire 'locals' or 'expats' is key to the smooth functioning of businesses seeking newer markets beyond borders. It is a major constraint on the speed with which businesses can expand international sales. Aspects like human resources and intellectual capital are critical to building sustainable competitive dominance. The AliveAdvisor team will get you the right person in the right place for the right job at the right cost. We will help you develop a cohesive network of professionals to ensure that your business operations run smoothly.

- Website & eCommerce: Your smart business website has to be productive. It is an early investment in your online presence that especially helps eCommerce businesses obtain the most valuable leads with potential for conversion. Eventually, this virtual window will strengthen the financial aspect of your global business across geographies and economies. It would therefore be sensible to keep your website user-friendly to conveniently engage large audiences over the world-wide-web. Experts at AliveAdvisor will evaluate essential aspects of your business and oversee that your website is technically sound and in line with your business activity. We will also help you upgrade if required or even create one that works best for your business.
- Strategic Partnership: This is one of the fastest ways for businesses to expand overseas. With feet on the ground, AliveAdvisor helps companies around the world to identify and partner up with existing businesses operating in the global market of your choice. Strategic partnerships also allow you to start selling your products and services in foreign countries from day one. The key to successful global business expansion is to find the right partner in an alien marketplace. AliveAdvisor, on your behalf, approaches well-established and reputed businesses in foreign markets having a good consumer base. Our expertise also lies in the fact that we can effectively communicate in other languages and understand the culture prevailing out there.
- Global Licensing: Trademark licensing is a legal aspect that safeguards your rights over the intellectual property from a licensor in conjunction with your product or service. It opens a gateway for all kinds of businesses seeking global business opportunities to generate additional revenue. This marketing strategy and brand extension tools are nowadays widely used by small businesses and major corporations alike. Global licensing is mostly apparent in the field of fashion, sports, and entertainment industries among corporate brands, publishing, universities, colleges, and non-profit organizations. Global licensing presents a golden opportunity for businesses worldwide to realize success in their international business expansion plan. However, it requires preparation and planning. AliveAdvisor is well-versed with the procedures involved and has helped numerous companies around the world generate revenue in overseas markets through licensing.
- Infrastructure Projects: Alongside ensuring regulatory compliance, your trusted partner AliveAdvisor takes away the complexities of doing business in countries where you have little or no presence. AliveAdvisor invites individuals and businesses to participate as investors through our Consortium Builders' Team in development and infrastructure projects worldwide. You can also submit your projects showcasing expertise to the team. Our team will advise and can even bid on your behalf for development projects worldwide if you like.
- AliveAdvisor Marketplace: We are all about new ways of doing business. Our eCommerce marketplace is a multichannel data-driven tech model that is the future of digital business. The AliveAdvisor marketplace is here to revolutionize how B2B companies the world over conduct business post the COVID-19 pandemic. It is an agile platform that effectively meets the demands of speed and scalability to support the fast-changing global dynamics. With cryptocurrency, bitcoins, and the like, the digital economy is an evolving phenomenon. The era of anything, anytime, and anywhere is fast taking shape.

- Social eCommerce: The thriving AliveAdvisor marketplace community comprises buyers, sellers, advisors, experts, businesses, and people from all walks of life promoting social eCommerce. It is a business cum social media network meant to make a more personalized shopping experience. Our eCommerce marketplace model directly and fruitfully combines the functionality of commerce and social media into one. AliveAdvisor marketplace is here to play an important role in the future of eCommerce where small and big businesses from all corners of the world come together with authentic engagement to share and recommend their brand.

- Product of the Month: This is a prominent ad feature of the AliveAdvisor marketplace applicable to all product categories and services of global businesses to receive in exchange for becoming active members of the platform. It is based on anything offered by companies providing tangible, or intangible customer satisfaction. Consumer, however, is the target and focus at the core of this exchange. The idea behind the 'Product of the Month' campaign is to create an eCommerce environment potentially leading businesses into investing in product enhancements alongside providing value to the customer.
- Lead Generation: Irrespective of geographies, lead generation is an important aspect of any successful online business growth strategic plan. Lead generation enhances presence to make businesses enter overseas markets profitably. It also enables them to establish and grow in a structured and sustainable fashion. The tech-savvy data-driven AliveAdvisor marketplace business model allows you to access insights into customer behavior along with contact information to identify people organically interested in your offerings.
