Welcome to my heART

BSQUARED MGMT

Los Angeles Based artist, Jayime Jean, to Present New Work at Upcoming Art Show!

Accomplished Los Angeles based fashion designer turned painter, Jayime Jean, is gearing up for her upcoming art show, "Welcome to My heART". This show, also including work from artist David Nelson, will be held on December 4th in Hermosa Beach, California. This amazing show will feature two beautiful collections from Jayime of 40 Original Paintings, and prints will also be available!

The 2019 Featured Artist at Las Vegas International Gallery, Jayime, started painting after eight years of designing her own denim brand! She is currently the owner of the incredible Make Luck Tattoo shop in Redondo Beach, California. That is where you can find her stunning acrylic paintings for sale at the shop!

Los Angeles, California Nov 22, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Los Angeles Based mixed media Artist Jayime Jean opens her heART as she describes in her last interview to any and all who might need some love and light at her upcoming Art Show. Featuring over 40 original Paintings all hugged in hand-selected gold frames to bring the passion to the surface and her vision to light. Expressing that she wanted to stay close to home and do a rather intimate Art Show it was decided she would put together this show on her own instead of a Gallery setting and will take the show to another Las Vegas Gallery shortly after. Following an Illuminating light she describes as a gift she went on an emotional painting journey she will never forget and always cherish.
