New York City, New York Nov 22, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A prominent chiropractor, Dr. Starkey engages with patients at his private practice in Tempe, Arizona. He specializes in the diagnosing and treatment of spinal vertebral joint fixations that can occur from lifestyle choices or acute injuries which can cause pain, discomfort, and possible degenerative conditions. The initial symptoms presented can include low back pain, sciatica, upper back pain, neck pain, arm pain, and headaches.

Regarding his educational background, he graduated with his Doctor of Chiropractic degree from National Chiropractic College, which is now the National University of Health Sciences.

Chiropractic is a form of alternative medicine that mainly deals with the diagnosis and treatment of biomechanical disorders of the musculoskeletal system, especially the spine. These disorders can also cause negative effects on the neurological system of the body, as well. A chiropractor uses spinal manipulation and other techniques to manage patients' health concerns, including neck pain, back pain, headaches, vertigo, and a long list of other ailments and conditions. They aim to improve patients' physical functionality and quality of life by properly aligning the body's musculoskeletal structure and enabling the body to heal itself naturally, without the use of medication or surgery.
