

Motion: Releases New Single Titled “Remind Me”

California, Los Angeles, Nov 2, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Caleb Lugo, Better known as Motion is an on the rise American Recording Artist from Chicago, Illinois. His musical journey began at the young age of 14. He was not afraid to put himself out there, so he did so by passing out CDs of his mixtape at his school. Since growing into his craft and sound he has released numerous singles. He has released an R&B/Synth Funk-infused EP titled SOUL WAVE and also a full-length album titled “Summer Canvas”.

Growing up his family had an amazing influence on him as his music. He began to appreciate a wide variety of musical pioneers such as Prince, Michael Jackson, and Stevie Wonder to reggae and rock bands such as The Police. He appreciates all genres. Motion has an amazing sound and aura to him. He seeks to spread inspiration, motivation, and hope to all who listen to what he has to say. He is humble and has struggled with highs and lows just like the rest of society, but he still aims for success as well as success for others. Within the next year he will be releasing a new project, but in the meantime enjoy his latest single titled "Remind Me" out now.
