

NFT Visionary Casmir Patterson, A Hidden Figure

New York City, New York Nov 4, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The global music industry has gone through a number of seismic shifts since the advent of the Internet, each time with claims of more economic empowerment and creative asset control. There are still no true platforms for music artists to go to build a viable community base and ways to support themselves financially,....here's where Music NFTs will no doubt be the future of the next paradigm shift for the delivery of music.

360NFT is a platform that makes it easy for recording artists and influencers to engage with their fans using blockchain NFT technology. Fans can join the waitlist at www.360nft.io

Casmir Patterson, the Founder and Chief Technology Officer of the music platform is launching their new company 360NFT on the Trapchain platform.

360NFT anticipates the first NFT launch on November 26th Black Friday with Willie Taylor of Day26. Future drops will include Mystikal and Murphy Lee from the St. Lunatics.

Casmir is a Blockchain visionary and one of the trailblazing pioneers of NFTs (Non-Fungible Tokens). As a college student who played basketball for DePaul University, Casmir mined Bitcoin in their dorm room and developed early ideas on how digital monetary value layered attached to intellectual property could be monetized before the rise of NFT technology. Casmir is a Consensys Certified Blockchain Engineer, and a Binance X Insight Decentralized Consensus Fellow. They hold the patent for System And Method For Digital Fashion Asset Management Through Blockchain, U.S. patent application number 17/212114.

Casmir is speaking at #NFT.NYC 2021 on the NFT Music Communities Panel on Wednesday, November 3, 2021, at 3:30 PM EDT.
