Russell Johnson said, "I've known Joel for a number of years and his dedication to helping spread joy and helping people in need made the decision to join Blupela's team a no-brainer. Some of Russell Johnson's work highlights include working with Tim McGraw and Faith Hill, Little Feat, Bertie Higgins, and many more as well as producing 43 celebrity golf tournaments and dozens of corporate and non-profit events in his company's history.

As part of what will be a regular feature of the Blupela.net's platform, we are happy to announce our first two Illuminations of the month. Illuminations are Blupela's way of shedding light on organizations, people, and businesses that are doing something special.

The first highlight is Table of Hope by Spring Street Community Development Corporation.

<https://blupela.net/table-of-hope/> TOH serves meals Monday through Friday from 5:30 -7 pm at no cost in Morris County, NJ. Using a repurposed school bus that was donated has helped create a mobile food pantry that delivers food and hope throughout the County. For those who are inspired to help, you can email them at info@springstreetcdc.org Volunteers and donations are always welcome.

Our second Illumination highlight goes to Joe Rieland. As a critical part of a transplant team, Joe's job is to ensure that the organ is properly prepared for implantation, the operating room is ready. It's a high-stress and demanding position. In order to unwind, Joe started making repurposed furniture out of industrial objects. His craftsmanship and art turned into Redefined. Joe's tireless work on promoting the need for organ transplants and his dedication are evident in the beauty of his furniture creations.
