Get to know Internist Dr. Patrick Romeus, who serves patients in North Miami Beach, Florida.

New York, New York City, Nov 2, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - A committed internist, Dr. Romeus is the Senior Attending Physician at Preferred Family Care in North Miami Beach, Florida. He fosters life-changing medical breakthroughs by offering his patients a more robust life through his extensive health and fitness methods.

Preferred Family Care is a family practice that caters to patients with all kinds of healthcare needs. Their physicians and staff are dedicated to providing comprehensive and high-quality care to each patient. They perform physical exams and treat a wide spectrum of illnesses and disorders in adult men and women.

A native of Haiti, Dr. Romeus graduated with his medical degree from the University of Haiti in 1995. After serving for many years in his community as a general practitioner, he relocated to the United States where he studied medical research involving different HIV treatments and Psychiatry at the VA Medical Center of Miami.

Upon successful completion of the requirements set forth by the United States Medical Licensing Examination Authority, he pursued his residency training at San Juan City Hospital and VA in Puerto Rico, which has led him to become fluent in more than 3 languages while earning his certification of internal medicine.

After extensive studying and practice in various medical realms, he is board-certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Nationally recognized because of his outstanding work in the medical community, Dr. Romeus has privileges in several community hospitals and has been awarded Best Physician Awards on numerous occasions by other fellow physicians. His medical expertise has led him to be sought out as a mentor by multiple teaching institutions, mentoring medical students and nurse practitioners.

Despite his demanding schedule, he still finds the time to give back to his community in Haiti through organized medical missions, and locally as well, through educational seminars, health screenings at several religious establishments, and many other community events.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
