

Ramsay Francis Dass, MD, an Internist in Private Practice

Get to know Internist Dr. Ramsay Francis Dass, who serves patients in Oak Park, Michigan.

New York City, New York Nov 9, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A committed internist, Dr. Dass works with patients at his private practice in Oak Park, Michigan. He is also the Medical Director and President of the American Middle East Christian Congress.

A native of India, he graduated with his medical degree from Topiwala National Medical College in Mumbai in 1971. He practiced medicine in countries around the world before moving to Detroit in 1983, where he completed his residency in internal medicine at the Sinai-Grace Hospital and started his private practice.

In 1996, Dr. Dass became the CEO of New Center Hospital, buying the hospital by pooling his own money with friends, family, and colleagues. He was moved by the plight of the underprivileged and overlooked residents, and constantly seeking new ways to reach the poor. His vision for New Center Hospital was to provide culturally sensitive care to the area's African, Arab, Chaldean, and Asian patients. The hospital changed its name to Renaissance Hospital, and later to Detroit Hope Hospital, before finally closing in 2009.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

On a more personal note, Dr. Dass is fluent in both English and Arabic.
