Get to know Gastroenterologist Dr. Rodrigo A. Castillo, who serves patients in Janesville, Wisconsin.

New York, New York City, Nov 2, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A trusted gastroenterologist, Dr. Castillo works with patients at Mercyhealth Michael Berry Building in Janesville, Wisconsin. He specializes in bile duct disorders, hepatitis, irritable bowel disease, Crohn's disease, ulcerative colitis, and pancreatitis.

Mercyhealth is a regional health system with seven hospitals and 85 primary and specialty care locations throughout 50 northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin communities. As an integrated health care provider, they provide exceptional, coordinated health care that spans four core service divisions: hospital-based services, clinic-based services, post-acute care, and retail services, and a wholly-owned insurance company, serving the full range of health care needs for their patients.

A Colombian native, Dr. Castillo earned his medical degree from Javeriana University in Bogota. After relocating to the United States, he completed his residency in internal medicine at the Hahnemann University Hospital and his fellowship in gastroenterology at the Allegheny General Hospital.

Following his training, the doctor attained board certification in gastroenterology and internal medicine through the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Gastroenterology is the branch of medicine focused on the digestive system and its disorders. A gastroenterologist is a physician who has extensive training in the diagnosis and treatment of disorders related to the esophagus, stomach, small intestines, colon, liver, pancreas, and biliary system.
