My career allows me to interact with a variety of personalities and gives me that sense of accomplishment and purpose when you cure their ailments. I'm definitely a "fixer" personality type. I enjoy listening to your concerns and addressing how to better or fix each one of those issues that are in my ability to handle" expressed Dr. Rosado.

When she is not seeing patients in the office, she enjoys performing a variety of gynecologic surgical procedures, especially minimally invasive laparoscopic and robotic procedures.
