Get to know Internist Dr. Teresa O. Madrid, who serves patients in Newark, New Jersey.

New York City, New York Nov 12, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A skilled internist, Dr. Madrid works with patients at Saint Michael's Medical Center in Newark, New Jersey.

Established by the Franciscan Sisters of the Poor in 1867, Saint Michael's Medical Center is a 358-bed regional tertiary-care, teaching, and research center in the heart of Newark's business and educational district and is accredited by The Joint Commission. Combining state-of-the-art technology, the latest diagnostic and therapeutic procedures, leading-edge research, and a network of highly qualified physicians, nurses, and allied health professionals, the hospital provides top-quality health care services delivered with compassionate care.

Throughout her academic career, Dr. Madrid earned her medical degree from the Far Eastern University in Manila, Philippines. Upon her relocation to the United States, she completed her residency in internal medicine at the Our Lady of Mercy Medical Center.

As a testament to her continued education, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

Among her most notable achievements, Dr. Madrid has been the recipient of the Patients' Choice Award (2014), and Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2014).

On a more personal note, she is fluent in both English and Filipino.
