

The LAB Host 2nd Annual Turkey Drive to Feed Families and Homeless In Need

Serving the homeless and families in need

Smyrna, Georgia Nov 11, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - East Point, GA - The LAB will partner with The Legacy Center, The Mario West Foundation, and Project 730 for its 2nd Annual Thanksgiving Turkey giveaway.

COVID-19 safety measures will be followed as frozen turkeys, cranberry sauce with two sides packaged and distributed into cars. Additionally, hot meals and toiletries will be passed out to the homeless and families in need. "In a time of year where togetherness and thankfulness are top-of-mind, many families face hardships and struggles. As a result, they seek to support and community during this holiday season. "Through this turkey drive, we are dedicated to delivering a happy Thanksgiving for all underserved, and the generosity and goodwill of others are greatly needed and appreciated," commented Jermal McCoy, CEO of The LAB.

The Thanksgiving drive-thru food distribution will take place on November 20, 2021, from 9:00, am –

1:00 pm at the Legacy Center at 3015 RN Martin Street in East Point, Ga.
