

Vicky Grammatikopoulou wins Gold twice at the Best Businesswomen Awards 2021

The Founder and CEO of Vie Aesthetics was awarded Best Customer Service and Best Consumer Business

London, England Nov 3, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The Best Businesswomen Awards have announced their winners for 2021 at a Gala Final held at the Hilton Wembley. Businesswoman Vicky Grammatikopoulou has won not one, but 2 Golden Awards in this prestigious competition which seeks to find the very best female business talent from across the UK and Internationally. Vicky is the founder and CEO of Vie Aesthetics, a leading luxury brand, that also holds the accolade of Global Aesthetic Practice of the Year in the MyFaceMyBody Global Awards with aesthetic clinics in London, in Essex, and in Germany, the Company's Vision is "Celebrating The Beauty of Life". As a doctor-led, CQC-regulated, and Save Face-accredited Medical Establishment, Vie Aesthetics has been providing safe and effective cutting-edge cosmetic, regenerative, and anti-ageing solutions for skin, face, body, wellness, and hair since 2013.

During a well-attended, glitzy, and prestigious Best Businesswomen Awards Gala on 15th October in the Grand Ballroom of the Wembley Hilton, Vicky received top recognition for her work as a successful businesswoman in two categories: for Best Consumer Business and also for Best Customer Service.

Despite a global pandemic, the sheer resilience of female entrepreneurs shone through. All winners, selected by a panel of business experts, demonstrated a flair for entrepreneurship, tenacity, and determination." I am incredibly honoured that our hard work at Vie Aesthetics is recognised by these awards and I feel very blessed indeed, to have the most incredible team supporting me" said Vicky Grammatikopoulou about winning these two golden awards.

Debbie Gilbert, the organiser of The Best Businesswomen Awards, said, 'This is a tough competition judged by business experts. To win is a major achievement. Winners were selected for their business acumen, creativity, and high levels of customer care. Our winners are shining examples of outstanding entrepreneurs who have proved their success to our judges and have shown they have the ingredients worthy of being recognised and rewarded.'

This is what the judges commented on Vicky's selection as the winner for the 2 awards:

For the Best Consumer Business Award: "This businesswoman has built her business from zero to 4 clinics across UK and Germany. An exceptional entrepreneur who clearly demonstrated great business acumen and ethics."

For the Best Customer Service Award: "A business which offers superb attention to detail, giving her customers a truly great experience. The customer service given goes above and beyond and this was clearly demonstrated in her entry and left us with no doubt as to why their customers love this business so much."

The Best Businesswomen Awards are designed to recognise the achievement of those women across a wide range of business categories and are open to any female business owner not just from the UK, but from anywhere in the world! Vicky Grammatikopoulou said, "I am humbled and at the same time very proud to be part of this community of high-achieving women in business." She went on to say, "My goal is to empower and encourage other women and to share what I have learned with other young entrepreneurs who are just starting out."
