

Well Esteemed, Longtime Political Strategist, Major R. Click, to Lobby US Congress in a Push For Support of S.2716

Longtime Alabama Political Strategist and Consultant, Major Ray Click, Joins Rigsby-McGhee Farm Foundation (RMFF) in Federal Lobby for S. 2716, American Beef Labeling Act of 2021

Anniston, Alabama Nov 15, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Major Ray Click, Longtime, Alabama Political Strategist and President of Click-McGhee, LLC, has formally agreed to assist Rigsby-McGhee Farm Foundation (RMFF) and several prominent national organizations in an effort to push for the support and passage of S.2716, The American Beef Labeling Act of 2021.

S.2716, The American Beef Labeling Act of 2021, sponsored by Senator John Thune, South Dakota (R). The bipartisan legislation was introduced on 09/13/2021 and read twice. Following the second reading, the legislation was referred to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry.

Click is expected to turn up the volume on this issue, lobbying on a federal level on behalf of two non-disclosed national organizations in behalf of the legislation. In addition, Click will be providing oversight and direction to Grassroots Lobby and Public Relations Campaigns in Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky, and Colorado.

Click also hopes to lobby the Indian Nation in an effort to gain continued support, investment, and involvement for this initiative, which was largely a native-backed initiative upon its inception.
