

What is Shih Tzu Meme Coin and Why Every Shiba Inu needs a Shih tzu?

Alma, Georgia Nov 12, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - shih tzu is another Meme coin, which is going to live in the market for worldwide crypto industry lovers. Shih Tzu is not only a simple meme coin it is an advanced meme coin-based blockchain ecosystem. Shih Tzu meme ecosystem also determined to pursue the next generation NFT marketplace based on animal lovers, artists of animals, including supporting animal lovers in their future roadmap.

Shih Tzu is a decentralized community and after the Shiba Inu experiment with it claims that 1/2 the tokens have been sent to Vitalik Buterin (so that means the burn) and the other half were locked to a Uniswap pool.

If you've seen the craziness around Shiba, that went completely crazy. But Shih tzu meme coin has a great future for the whole meme coin lovers. Shih Tzu is also starting making collaborate between the two parties on NFT groundwork that will create a powerful impact on changing animals' lives and those of animal lovers creating a better and greener side.

SHIBA INU & SHIH TZU HISTORY

Shiba Inu and Shih Tzu both are trendy breeds of dogs. They look distinctly different from one another, and they have temperament differences as well. The Shih Tzu is a breed from China, while the Shiba Inu originates from Japan. The name translates to "small lion." They both have similar features despite their origins being so different.

The Facts Says the Shih Tzu is a breed of dog from China that's believed to have been bred by crossing Shiba Inu. These tiny little creatures are often referred to as "the lion-dog" because they resemble miniature lions!

As we know that Shiba Inus were originally bred in Japan. And at the same time, Shih Tzus originated in China before arriving in their current home country. The name for this breed translates into "small lion." They're much smaller than most other breeds. But they are the most popular and expensive.

SHIH TZU MEME BASED ECOSYSTEM

SHIH TZU is a next-generation meme coin after Shiba Inu experiment in decentralized meme which is spontaneous community building through its competitor Doge coin. Shih Tzu coin is one of the first tokens that allows users to hold Billions or even Trillions of Shih Tzu tokens in their wallet or Exchange without any issue. It is also called SHIBA Inu KILLER, Shih Tzu is a BEP20 token, and it can remain well under a penny and still outpace Dogecoin and SHIB in a small amount of time (relatively speaking).

Shih Tzu meme coin will also lock 40% to 50% of its total supply to Pancakeswap once they live in the market. And The remaining will distribute its community through Airdrop and Private and Public sales, also Shih Tzu coin will be the first project following this path in this meme industry, so everyone must buy Shih Tzu to the open market. We also ensure a fair and complete distribution where developers don't own team tokens they can dump on the community. So due to all this Community can trust this advanced Meme coin and its ecosystem.

SHIH TZU COMMUNITY

Shih Tzu is a decentralized worldwide community-driven meme coin. So, there are no founders, no team tokens. Shih Tzu Community's purpose is to allocate skills within the community to appropriate roles in Shih Tzu development and collectively agree on decisions for the Shih Tzu coin and its future Roadmap. Shih Tzu is "fully decentralized and owned by its large community, which is a strong and vibrant community in the world." The Shih Tzu project promises instant rewards for users. Shih Tzu Coin holders will also receive profit on every transaction in the network. This approach guarantees that users earn more rewards the more they actively use the Shih Tzu coin, so when the fostering increased community usage and a healthy distribution ecosystem.

SHIH TZU IS A MEME BASED COIN

Like other cryptocurrencies, memes coins were born on the internet and have journeyed from the fringes to the mainstream. They're used to drive the adoption of cryptocurrency, signal bullishness or bearishness on certain assets or coins by traders, and even boost the value of every token. Here at Shih Tzu meme-based Coin is like another cryptocurrency because Shih Tzu meme coin will use its own blockchain and within the other upcoming platform based on Shih Tzu blockchain. So, the Shih Tzu meme coin will be the market player in the next few months.

SHIH TZU IS A GOOD INVESTMENT FOR FUTURE

As everyone knows cryptocurrencies are notoriously volatile, which makes them a very risky investment. While they can sometimes shoot up in value very quickly, they can crash just as fast. When investing in anything you should only ever put in what you can afford to lose.

Shih Tzu coin is even more efficient and more powerful than the likes of Shiba Inu & Doge, because it is on an advanced NFT platform with a worldwide strong community, and very little is known about it.

The price of the Shih Tzu coin can be expected to be wild in near future and this is a legitimate platform where investors can make money instantly. There are major differences between the likes of Bitcoin, which runs on cutting-edge tech and has a limited supply giving it scarcity value like gold – amongst other valuable attributes – and unknown digital tokens which seemingly have no inherent value, So Shih Tzu will make you a billionaire.
