Get to know Dermatologist Dr. Adrienne Rencic, who serves patients in Glen Mills, Pennsylvania.

New York City, New York Dec 3, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A devoted dermatologist, Dr. Rencic is the Owner of Rencic Dermatology, a private dermatologic practice in Glen Mills, Pennsylvania. She believes that patients should play an active role in the health of their skin. She and her staff strive to provide efficient care in a tranquil and soothing atmosphere to people of all ethnic backgrounds and of all ages.

Educated in the United States, she graduated with her Bachelor of Arts degree in Chemistry from Johns Hopkins University in 1990, and earned her medical degree and Doctor of Philosophy degree in Molecular Biology and Biochemistry from Sidney Kimmel Medical College at Thomas Jefferson University. She then went on to complete her internship at the Pennsylvania Hospital, and her residency in dermatology at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. Finally, she completed a research fellowship focusing on rhinoviral infection and epithelial chemokine receptors under the guidance of Dr. Lisa Beck at the Johns Hopkins Asthma and Allergy Center.

As a testament to her continued education, the doctor is board-certified in dermatology by the American Board of Dermatology (ABD). The ABD is a voluntary, non-profit, private, autonomous organization formed for the primary purpose of protecting the public interest by establishing and maintaining high standards of training, education, and qualifications of physicians rendering care in dermatology.

Continuously advancing her efforts, Dr. Rencic is an active member of the American Academy of Dermatology, and the Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society. She is also a regular contributor to www.dermatlas.org, and is a past member of the American Medical Association.

Among her other roles, she can be found on staff at Chester County Hospital. In the past, she served as a Clinical Dermatologist at Mainline Dermatology, and as an Attending Dermatologist at Mercy Medical Center. She also served as a Clinical Instructor at the University of Maryland Medical System.

Dermatology is the branch of medicine dealing with the skin. The skin is the largest organ of the body. Dermatology is a specialty with both medical and surgical aspects. A dermatologist is a specialist doctor who manages skin diseases and deals with both internal and external causes and some cosmetic concerns involving the skin. Dermatological duties include taking consultations, providing screening tests, and undertaking non-invasive surgical procedures.

With over 23 years of experience in her field, Dr. Rencic has been the recipient of the Top Doctor Award by Philadelphia Magazine (2021), Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2016, 2012, 2011), On-Time Doctor Award (2016, 2015), and Patients' Choice Award (2016).

Speaking several languages, she is fluent in English, German, and Croatian.
