Get to know Family Nurse Practitioner, Deborah M. Stuckey, who serves patients in Carrollton, Georgia.

New York City, New York Dec 1, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Deborah is a devoted family nurse practitioner seeing patients at Sewell Family Medicine in Carrollton, Georgia. Always striving to provide her patients with the best care, she currently specializes in family medicine.

Sewell Family Medicine is proud to provide a high-quality level of customer service, medical experience, and commitment to health and wellness to all their patients. With years of combined experience, their medical team—consisting of Dr. Kele Sewell and nurse practitioner Deborah Stuckey—will assess patients and create a custom wellness plan that is right for them. Their goal is to make patients feel better as quickly as possible.

To begin her career, Deborah attended the University of West Georgia and earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree in 2011 which she used as a nurse in the local emergency department at Tanner Medical Center in Carrollton, Georgia. From there, she went on to attend Columbus State University where she earned her Master of Science in Nursing degree in 2021.

On a professional level, she is an active member of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners.

A Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) is an advanced practice registered nurse who works autonomously or in collaboration with other healthcare professionals, to deliver family-focused care. Given the rather broad nature of the “family” patient population focus, FNP’s offer a wide range of healthcare services that revolve around the family unit; from health promotion and disease prevention to direct care and counseling across the lifespan.

On a more personal note, Deborah attributes her success to being able to help people and seeing her patients get better.
