

Duke The Guitarist “Create Your Own Stage”

Coachella, California Dec 3, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Uniqueness has always been a key factor in the music industry and that's exactly what you get from Rodrick Robinson. Rodrick is known as Duke The Guitarist has given diversity a new meaning. Being fluent in multiple musical genres has given him an advantage when it comes to placements with artists and social media presence. He can be spotted performing live with r&b, gospel, country, and blues acts from the local, national, and major levels. His media presence including original music, covers, duets, and features on some of the top media platforms, profiles, and blogs has landed him endorsements by Southern Sound Outfitters, Ernie Ball, and Drop Strap.

He received his first music award nomination for the 2021 Josie Music Awards

Musician Of The Year

He says “Create Your Own Stage” a slogan used by the team over at Southern Sound Outfitters, is some of the best advice he’s gotten along his journey.
