

Eminenture Celebrates 10th Anniversary

The international IT/BPM company-Eminenture is celebrating its decade-long corporate presence this December 2021. It's a long journey, where customers feel more connected, contented, and happy with it.

New Delhi, Delhi Dec 29, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Eminenture has completed a decade of being here in the IT/BPM industry, serving domestic and international customers. It's all social media accounts, like LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook, and Twitter, show that the moment is huge. The celebration messages are echoing there. Over the next year, it will celebrate this benchmark.

The company has announced the reward system of customers the entire year. All loyal corporate connections will be eligible for these special rewards. It's really a big reason to celebrate for them.

Rising and Recognition

Starting from the ground level, it rose like a star. A lot of dark phases interrupted its growth. But, the sunshine of exceptional technical experience and innovative mindset took it to heights. NASSCOM community also selected it for its launchpad program a few years back. The very same community honoured it under a coveted category-Excellent Customer Experience'19 award.

Many reputed presses have surfaced it with the adjectives like "topmost" and the "most promising company" in different outsourcing domains. Actually, this ISO-certified company has shown excellence in AI & data science, technology, data analytics, digital marketing, web design and development, knowledge consulting, and research domains. A highly professional team showed its consistent commitment to discovering the change and adapting to it.

Defeated Challenges

This is a pandemic-stricken phase the world is struggling with. Discontinuity is widespread, pausing corporate lives. Despite this, the outsourcing firm virtually assisted over 150 global customers. They shifted to the digital platform, encouraged promotions there, and grabbed more business opportunities. It helps overseas and domestic entrepreneurs leverage the digital capacities that it offers. Many ones from the worldwide trade community have recognized it for delivering an amazing transformation experience in a quick turnaround time.

In-house Celebration

Internally, there are lots of things happening. Multiple gifts, brooch, and accessories were distributed to employees as a token of gratitude for being associated. A lot more things are likely to happen over time. This celebration is going to be a program for the year-long exercise.

Witnessing this anniversary is no less than a delightful moment for its owners. They feel blessed and excited because the struggle of a decade paid off with recognition. This organization was the dream of two aspiring owners. Step by step, they came across many ups and downs. They believed in themselves and broke all stereotype protocols. By creating their own ways, they are now a team of over a hundred technology and data experts.

The CEO was immensely happy and congratulated the entire Eminence Family. He assured the team, "we would come stronger and united to achieve our vision in the next few years. There is more that we have to achieve. We are looking at the center of the eye. This is just the beginning of our rising. More is yet to come. Digital innovation is our forte, and we would exaggerate our expertise in it. Congratulations to those who contributed to our success stood by our side while encouraging our souls!"
