He was educated in his village Haniya. My life was born in very difficult circumstances and after being born in a simple farmer family.

As a child, he loved to read books, watch the news on TV, read news in newspapers, while doing so, he gradually became fond of journalism and since childhood, He completed his studies up to class 12 and got admission to Jai Narayan Vyas University, Jodhpur for higher education after completing his studies in the village. Simultaneously, he made his foray into electronic media in 2014 and started reporting in a regional channel in Rajasthan which he is currently doing. Right now he is post graduate in journalism from Jai Narayan Vyas University. Sudhir Bishnoi had raised issues related to many rural areas prominently in my journalism so far, due to which I got national and international recognition.

Sudhir Bishnoi is a resident of the Haniya of Osian in Jodhpur district, Sudhir Bishnoi Founded Digital Media Platform Media Manthan News. who is a student of journalism, as well as doing journalism and social work for the purpose of social concern for the last few years, he says that he loves involved in social concern and he would do it all through his life.

Journalism has flaws, but it also has a self-correcting process. The golden rule in journalism is to speak to all. It must talk, and speak quickly, as the echoes of wonder, triumphant declarations, and signs of horror linger in the air. Hailing from Jodhpur, Sudhir Bishnoi is an Indian Journalist, anchor, and YouTuber.

Sudhir completed his education from Jai Narayan Vyas University JODHPUR and further did his Double MA in the field of Journalism with 80.8%. He has been involved in reading, writing, and engaging in numerous debate competitions since he was a teenager, in which he talked about a variety of sensitive issues.
