Los Angeles, Dec 7, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Grabbing attention from the listeners of Spotify has become even easier with the fruitful promotional packages by The Tunes Club. The company has garnered a lot of attention from artists around the world as helped empower many of them. Spotify has become one of the biggest online music streaming platforms and it is not an easy task to reach the listeners while standing out among the horde of emerging music artists in a competitive market. With the help of this agency, it is possible to gain more attention from the target audience with effective promotional campaigns.

The Tunes Club is well revered for providing 100% organic spotify promotions for artists with loyal listeners and followers. The agency has a huge network with numerous curated Spotify Playlists which has more than 200k+ active followers. Letting artists get featured in these playlists provides a greater boost in their popularity as well as helps to create a huge fanbase. As one of the leading promotional agencies, it offers the complete benefit of playlist marketing, content marketing, and social media marketing. It has a team of professional writers who write exclusive content on music such as press releases, music blogs, music reviews, etc which are further distributed over 150+ news and media platforms. Thus, artists get enough press coverage and online exposure. The company also utilizes the beneficial side of social media platforms as it creates a huge social media buzz through the platforms like Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.

The promotional packages provided by this company are categorized into four main divisions, such as Spotify Marketing Package, Spotify Marketing Pro Pack, Spotify Promotion Pack, and last but not the least Spotify Promotion Pro Pack. Each of the packages is designed in a way that fits every artist's budget and requirements whether an independent artist or an established music artist in the industry. Spotify Marketing Package costs only $39 and allows to add one track which will be added to 100+ curated playlists to offer artists more than 2500-300 active listeners. It also creates enough social media buzz to offer loyal followers who can actually boost the popularity of the artists. Similarly, Spotify Promotion Pack allows adding a total of two tracks which is further distributed over 150+ curated Spotify playlists from where artists can gain up to 6000-6500 listeners easily. It also includes service for press release distribution which helps to cater attention from the journalists and reporters of the music industry. The service costs only $69 which is fairly reasonable than most other professional agencies.

The benefits and features come with a greater magnitude as the premium services offer more options. Spotify Marketing Pro Pack and Spotify Promotion Pro Pack cost $105 and $169 respectively and allow artists to add 3-4 tracks over 200 – 250+ curated Spotify playlists. The services offer 9000+ to 12000+ listeners around the world through effective social media promotion and content marketing. Press release, Music Blogs, Music Reviews; everything is included in the packages to let the artists avail of the services without any worries. The Tunes Club is here to empower every other music artist who is looking forward to gaining organic popularity through Spotify.
